

OPTIONAL TOURS provided by Citsline International Akron Chamber April 2010

An optional tour is a trip, excursion or event, in addition to a function already listed on your base itinerary. It is important to note that you have an active schedule, yet you may choose to purchase one or more optional tour packages while in China. These options will be offered whether rain or shine, have moderately priced additional costs per person (pp), and are explained by your tour guide plus paid for in United States Dollars (USD) in China, one day prior to the attraction. Also note that these options are some of the more popular choices and not yet locked in; optional tours are based upon availability and season, and are subject to be modified during your in-country visit. The final itinerary, received and published approximately three-weeks prior to departure day, will list assigned dates and possible optional tours.

1. Hutong Tour in Beijing (USD35/pp)

Hutong is a traditional living area for ordinary Beijing citizens, the history of which dates back 1000 years. Thousands of houses of traditional architecture style are densely flanked on both sides of narrow and zigzag streets in which people have been living a peaceful and traditional life there through many generations. Tourists will first get on a traditional rickshaw, two for each, for a Hutong tour, riding through the narrow streets tracing the test of the historical life of an oriental country. Afterwards, guests visit local families interviewing their life and cooking dumplings with the family members. During lunch time, tourists will be served delicious Chinese domestic dishes and the Chinese dumplings they made. During the two-hour Hutong tour, tourists will learn a lot about China's modern life and its people. It is another highlight after the Great Wall.

2. Peking Opera (USD20/pp, USD40/pp for VIP seat)

Peking Opera is the masterpiece of China's traditional culture and art and it was born in Beijing. Today it is more than three-hundred years old. The Opera lasts ninety minutes, covering several different plays, of which some are full of fighting and some traditional singing and dancing. The show is beautiful for its colorful costumes, impressive facial designs and staging style of oriental culture.

3. Boat Ride on Grand Canal in Suzhou (USD25/pp)

Grand Canal is a purely artificial object completed 1300 years ago by the Chinese. It starts from Beijing and ends up in Hangzhou with a total length of more than 1,000 miles. During the fifty minute boat ride, tourists may enjoy the view of both modern and old life of Suzhou.

4. Evening Cruise on Huangpu River (USD25/pp)

The cruise will absolutely build in every one an unforgettable impression of Grand Shanghai! The evening view of Shanghai from the cruise is gorgeous, charming and unbeatable.

5. ERA-Intersection of Time-by Cirque du Soleil (USD35/pp)

The first of its kind in China, as a multimillion-dollar stunning acrobatic extravaganza, ERA is a multimedia odyssey whose inspiration is a direct result of the combination of traditional Chinese acrobatic arts and modern technology. Just like Shanghai, ERA evolves through a constant collision between past and future. ERA is a love story and a fascination with the other dimension man has yet to conquer: time. ERA's acrobats are on a quest to find that tenuous point of balance, the intersection between X, Y and Z. Not only will the audience be amazed by the acrobats' control and precision, they will be enchanted by the world that is created through multimedia use, technology, lighting, sound effects, elaborate costumes, original live music and lots more. As such, ERA remains universal, without language or cultural barriers. A thousand-year-old gesture is worth a thousand emotions, a thousand images, a thousand words. Allow us to feed your imagination and bring your dreams back to the present.

6. Shanghai Maglev Train (one way ticket USD15/pp, round trip USD25/pp)

Shanghai maglev train, the first commercial rail line of its type in the world, links Metro Line 2 at Longyang Road with the Pudong International Airport by a train traveling at top speed of 431 kilometers per-hour which is much faster than the Bullet Train in Japan. Shanghai Maglev Train takes only 7 minutes and 20 seconds to cover 30 kilometer trip, which currently takes 30 to 40 minutes by driving. Invested with a total amount of 10 billion yuan, it took 2.5 years to complete. It is powered by electromagnetism, when running it is suspended in air, about 10 millimeters above the track on a magnetic cushion. It brings a speed revolution to the world in ground transportation, and riding on the train will be an exciting experience for you!

7. The Legend of Kung Fu (USD25/pp)

The Legend of Kung Fu is a production which combines the elements of kung fu, story-telling, acrobatics, modern dance, and original music to celebrate the philosophy and skill of martial arts. The show tells the story of a young boy, Chun Yi (the pure one), who in order to pursue spiritual and physical harmony is apprenticed as a monk to learn kung fu. Along the way he overcomes obstacles, is distracted and tempted, but ultimately achieves the designation of master who will enlighten the younger generations. Invited by Canada's most experienced cultural brokers, John Crompton of Great World Artists, 'Chun Yi: The Legend of Kung Fu' had its first North America tour from August 2005 to January 2006. During the time, it played 150 performances in Vancouver, Toronto, Reno and other North American cities and won numerous audience admirations.
