Get Ready! Frontier Airlines' Airbus 320 arrives at Akron-Canton Airport
Jet is the largest commercial airliner ever scheduled at CAK

Green, OH: A BIG summer is in store for travelers using Akron-Canton Airport (CAK). Frontier Airlines Airbus 320 departed from CAK this morning at 6:15 a.m. and will continue to arrive/depart from CAK all summer long. To celebrate, one lucky winner will get $500 in Frontier Airlines' Fly Bucks to use for a flight on the largest jet in the Frontier fleet. With 162 seats the Airbus 320 is the biggest commercial airliner ever scheduled at CAK. Yukon the Caribou makes a big impression on the tail of the aircraft.

"We are delighted to welcome the Frontier's newest A320 to CAK," said Rick McQueen, president & CEO. "This spacious airplane will be a big hit with customers traveling out west from the Cleveland+ region. Passengers will love the roomy cabins, DirecTV ®, big overhead bins and of course, Frontier's award-winning in-flight experience."

To celebrate the arrival of Yukon at CAK, one lucky traveler will win $500 in Fly Bucks from Frontier Airlines. To enter, visit our page at www.facebook.com/akroncantonairport and tell us why you are a big fan of CAK and Frontier Airlines. The best entry, judged by a panel of CAK and Frontier' local crew members, will win the $500 Fly Bucks prize. The contest ends July 2, 2010, at midnight. Other rules and restrictions apply. Full contest information is available on the airport's Facebook page. Also, to see photos of today's inaugural Airbus 320 flight check out the airport's Flickr page at www.flickr.com/akroncantonairport.
