Are you prepared to communicate with the public during an intense public-safety emergency?

This seminar will give safety, health, school, government officials and other community leaders the tools to navigate the harsh realities of speaking to the public, media, partners and stakeholders during an intense public-safety emergency (e.g. mass casualty, pandemic flu, terrorism and other extreme situations).

When: Tuesday, July 8 from 9:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

Instructor: Bruce Hennes, Hennes Communications, www.crisiscommunications.com

Location: Akron-Canton Airport, 5400 Lauby Rd., Second Floor Conference Room, North Canton, Ohio

Cost: Free, but we are strictly limited to 150 people, so a firm reservation is an absolute must.

Online Registration: www.extremecrisiscommatcak.eventbrite.com

Information: 216-321-7774

CERTIFICATION

This seminar has been approved for two (2) Continuing Professional Training (CPT) hours by the Ohio Peace Officer Training Commission, Office of the Attorney General.

"The need to communicate clearly was never more compelling than during the recovery from the World Trade Center attacks. People were desperate for information. The information had to be correct, but there were delicate questions of taste and sensitivity as well."

– Rudy Guiliani, Former Mayor, City of New York
